

2010 Speak Up Survey

Privacy Policy

We acknowledge that privacy is a concern for visitors to our website and we hope that this policy explains how we handle all of the information provided to us by our visitors. This policy may be changed or updated occasionally and we encourage you to email us any questions and concerns you may have about this policy at speakup@tomorrow.org

The information that is provided to us through our web page is treated with respect and confidentiality. Speak Up currently does not use any permanent cookies for tracking, content analysis or any other purpose. The Speak Up Activation process does use temporary cookies.

No personally identifiable information is collected from students. We do not exchange or sell any of the school contact email addresses collected from the site.

Thank you for visiting our site and for supporting Speak Up. Project Tomorrow® is a national education nonprofit organization based in Irvine, California. The vision of Project Tomorrow® is ensure that today's students are well prepared to be tomorrow's innovators, leaders and engaged citizens. We believe that by supporting the innovative uses of science, math and technology resources in our K-12 schools and communities, students will develop the critical thinking, problem solving and creativity skills needed to compete and thrive in the 21st century.

Speak Up 2010 is generously underwritten this year by the following innovative companies:

Blackboard[®] K-12

schoolwires[®]
come together
around success

SMART
Technologies

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN HARCOURT

Project Tomorrow, the nonprofit organization that facilitates Speak Up, retains all legal rights to the data gathered as part of Speak Up and prohibits the use of the data for commercial or unauthorized purposes by any entity.

For more information about appropriate use, please contact the Speak Up Team.